

Test Questions 2

You must answer question 1. You can choose one among the three choices for question 2. Be sure to give examples from the stories.

- 1. In all three stories, the main character fails in some way. Compare the three narrators and ways in which they failed. In what ways are the characters and their failures similar? Use examples and evidence from the story to support your idea.
- 2. Choose one:
 - a. “Harrison Bergeron”: Is the equality in “Harrison Bergeron” really equal? What evidence from the story suggests that it is or is not true equality?
 - b. “Birthmark”: Do you think that the husband in the story would have married his wife even if she never got plastic surgery? Why do you think so? What evidence from the story supports your idea?
 - c. “The Monkey Garden”: Why does the narrator of “The Monkey Garden” get angry when Sally starts to kiss the boys? What evidence from the story supports your idea?
