

Magazine Assignment

This final assignment can take pieces of the other two, but it is much more open-ended. What you must do is write an article for a magazine. The length of the assignment and subject matter is up to you.

If I receive enough of these, I'll have them bound together into a kind of magazine, and I'll give everyone copies to read on the final day of class.

Unlike the other assignments, please have the draft for peer review a WHOLE draft. When you bring it to class, I'll edit grammar and so forth during class time and give it back to you. The FINAL draft will be final in the sense that you won't get to edit it again. What you give me on that Tuesday is what will be bound in the magazine.

The first draft is due for peer review on Monday, August 20.
The final draft is due on Tuesday, August 21.
