

Argument

Your second assignment for this class will be to write an argument. Your argument:

- Should be about an issue that is arguable, meaning that some people agree and some disagree. Aside from this, it may be about any topic that you are interested in.
- Should include all the proper elements of an academic paper, including an introduction, thesis, topic sentences, body, transitions, and conclusion.
- Should include not only your side of the argument, but should also include why the other side of the argument is not valid.

Like your short story, your argument will be brought to class three times. Again, the more you bring to class the better my responses will be.

- The first draft is due Monday, August 6.
- The second draft is due Friday, August 10.
- The final draft is due Monday, August 13.
